

European Parliament: Report by the Special Committee on EU authorisation procedure for pesticides adopted

The Special European Parliament Committee created after the controversial debate about the authorisation of the pesticide active substance Glyphosate (cf. earlier editions of EWA News) has delivered its final report, adopted by the Plenary of the European Parliament in January 2019.