

Parliamentary question on waste water treatment on the Upper Moselle river in Luxembourg, and related Commission answer

This edition of EWA News has selected two examples of Parliamentary questions and related answers in full text which demonstrate scrutiny by the European Parliament as regards

- compliance with EU water legislation, and
- national implementation legislation under the Environmental Impact Assessment Directive.

The full list of all water-related Parliamentary questions you will find as usual at the end of this edition.