EUROPEAN WATER ASSOCIATION

Newsletter Issue 5/2026

Building Awareness of the Urban Water Cycle, One Brick at a Time

A proposed LEGO Ideas model brings the complete urban water cycle to life, from raw water abstraction and drinking water production to wastewater treatment and discharge. Featuring key infrastructure and seven water-sector professions, the model offers a creative opportunity to improve public understanding of water services and inspire interest in water-related careers. EWA invites the European water community to discover and support the initiative.

(c) Copyright EWA 2026