

Issue 2/2021

Two public consultation

The European Commission has launched two public consultations

a) on the planned review of the Communication on important projects of common European interest (IPCEI),

b) on the planned review of the Directive on Environmental Crime.

EWA NEWS provides you the background information, access to the underlying documents as well as to the consultation itself.

