

EU Enlargement Package

- 2023 Enlargement Communication, plus
- individual assessment reports for Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Serbia, Turkey, and for the first time also Ukraine, the Republic of Moldova and Georgia

Source: Wikimedia Commons, Creative Commons
Attribution 3.0 Unported

- Recommendation to open negotiations with Ukraine and Moldova, to grant candidate status to Georgia and to open accession negotiations with Bosnia and Herzegovina, once the necessary degree of compliance is achieved

9 November 2023 saw publication of the “2023 Enlargement Package”, providing a detailed assessment of the state of play and the progress made by Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Serbia, Turkey, and for the first time also Ukraine, the Republic of Moldova and Georgia on their respective paths towards accession to the European Union. In particular, the report focuses on the progress in the implementation of fundamental reforms, as well as on providing clear guidance on the reform priorities ahead. Accession is and will remain a merit-based process, fully dependent on the objective progress achieved by each country.

EWA News provides you key elements on the individual countries, and links to the full texts of Commission Communication and individual country assessment reports.