

Issue 1/2023

Sustainability agreements in agriculture EU-wide consultation on draft guidelines on antitrust exclusion

Following the 2021 adoption of a new exclusion allowing restrictions of competition for agreements in the agriculture sector, the European Parliament and the Council have asked the Commission to issue guidelines concerning the conditions for the application of this exclusion.

EWA NEWS provides you an overview as well as links for closer reading of and participation in this consultation.